

Thy Kingdom Come 2022

Day 6: "Give us today our daily bread,"

Today we choose to trust in God's goodness and provision as we petition Him for the physical and spiritual needs of our families and ourselves.

Psalm 5

*Listen to my words, Lord,
consider my lament.
Hear my cry for help,
my King and my God,
for to you I pray.*

*In the morning, Lord, you hear my voice;
in the morning I lay my requests before you
and wait expectantly.
For you are not a God who is pleased with
wickedness;
with you, evil people are not welcome.
The arrogant cannot stand
in your presence.
You hate all who do wrong;
you destroy those who tell lies.
The bloodthirsty and deceitful
you, Lord, detest.
But I, by your great love,
can come into your house;
in reverence I bow down
toward your holy temple.*

*Lead me, Lord, in your righteousness
because of my enemies—
make your way straight before me.
Not a word from their mouth can be trusted;
their heart is filled with malice.
Their throat is an open grave;
with their tongues they tell lies.
Declare them guilty, O God!
Let their intrigues be their downfall.
Banish them for their many sins,
for they have rebelled against you.
But let all who take refuge in you be glad;
let them ever sing for joy.*

*Spread your protection over them,
that those who love your name may rejoice in you.*

*Surely, Lord, you bless the righteous;
you surround them with your favor as with a shield.*

Adults:

- Make a list of your family's needs at this time and bring them to God in prayer
- Think of at least 5 times God has provided for you and your family

Children / family:

- Discuss together which spiritual gift (1 Corinthians 12) you would most like to have and why. Then ask God to grant you this gift in prayer.
